

Join Today! Make a Difference!

WHY NOHCJ?

The keystone of NOHCJ is to foster an interchange of information and training between professionals in law enforcement, the courts, corrections, and interested citizens. NOHCJ is affiliated to the American Correctional Association.

NOHCJ sponsors a national training conference every two years that offers workshops, seminars and professional development activities, as well as social and cultural activities to promote the best of Hispanic, Native American and other minorities.

Mark your calendars for the 2nd. N O H C J Training Conference scheduled for April 28 through May 1, 2008 in Orlando, Florida!

Be part of history, don't miss this great opportunity to meet and greet the best in business in the Criminal Justice field!

For additional information contact
Raul Banasco, President
407-702-5666

Lupe Martinez, Vice-president
505-523-3230

Ana T. Aguirre, Treasurer
512-423-8537

Maria de los A. Colón, Secretary
850-322-5222

Jeanna Gomes
713-660-0776

NOHCJ

P. O. Box 452614

Kissimmee, FL 34745-2614

Corporate Office

P. O. Box 924

Fair Acres, NM 88033-0924

Phone: 407-702-5666

www.nohcj.org

Our Objectives:

- To provide a mechanism for meaningful interchange of information between the disciplines of the criminal justice system nationally for Hispanics and other minorities.
- To keep citizenry informed and educated as to the purposes, achievements, goals and challenges of the criminal justice system.
- To solicit citizen volunteer involvement and to perform and promote community service.
- To promote high standards of professional practice in the criminal justice field.
- To conduct national seminars, workshops and training programs for criminal justice practitioners.

Visit our website www.nohcj.org to learn more about our organization, download the membership application, read "La Voz" newsletter, get additional information on the National Training Conference and meet our Executive Board and our Committee Chairs.

Don't Wait: Join Today!